The Barcelona Knowledge Hub

The Barcelona Knowledge Hub is the Academia Europaea's office for the Mediterranean and Southern European region. The BKH-AE started its activities in 2013, and it is located in the site of the Institute for Catalan Studies, in the centre of Barcelona. The BKH-AE's goal is to contribute to the consolidation of a genuine European area of innovation, research, and education in the Mediterranean and Southern Europe.
Ricard Guerrero, Academic Director of the BKH-AE.

Disputatio Week of 2015: NATURAL vs. ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE. Barcelona, 9-11 December

The BKH-AE announces the organisation of its 3rd modern-day Disputatio of Barcelona, that will take place within the framework of the Disputatio Week of 2015, and will include different scientific and social activities. This year's topic of debate will be Natural vs. Artificial Intelligence, and the programme and speakers are currently under preparation. The activities will take place in the Institute for Catalan Studies (IEC) and in the Royal Chapel of St. Agatha (Gothic Quartier).

Young Academy of Europe INTERVIEW PROJECT

The Young Academy of Europe (YAE), with the collaboration of the BKH-AE, will start the production of a series of interviews to Members of the Academia Europaea conducted by Members of the YAE. The project was inspired by Anne Buttimer's "International Dialog Project" and will be directed by Prof. Lynn Kamerlin, Uppsala University.
